

Australian College of Educators

Audrey Nay, Sandy Beach Public School

Audrey Nay has held the position of librarian and technology coordinator over her 14 years at Sandy Beach Public School. In her roles she has coordinated training for interactive whiteboards across the local area, participated in a range of technology online learning hubs and led professional learning for staff in the use of ICT to improve student outcomes. Audrey has also broadened student's skills beyond her lessons, by extending their roles as digital leaders to assist staff and fellow students. Her dedication to remain current in her own professional knowledge and practices has been a benefit to all members of our school community. Audrey is a worthy recipient of recognition on World Teachers' Day.