Joanna Mellefont, Grafton High School

Joanne is a passionate teacher and an inspiring team leader. Her commitment to her students throughout her extensive teaching career of 37 years has been admirable and is indicative of her enthusiasm in creating an engaging, interactive and supportive classroom environment. As Head Teacher English, Jo has fostered a solid team approach in the development of a cohesive, happy and harmonious faculty. This has resulted in positive outcomes for staff, students and the wider community and she is acknowledged and respected by all stakeholders in the ever changing educational domain. Joanne is a worthy recipient of recognition on World Teachers' Day.
