

Australian College of Educators

Julie Streader, Ballina Public School

Julie is an outstanding educator and has a unique ability to marry current educational thinking with the needs of her students so that they are actively engaged in learning. This, and her unquenchable thirst for enhancing the wellbeing of the students in her care, make her being recognised on World Teachers' Day highly justified. Julie is a worthy recipient of recognition on World Teachers' Day.