

Australian College of Educators

Rhonda Lewis, Orara High School

Rhonda receives this recognition for her involvement for over 20 years at Orara High School as a dedicated support teacher. Rhonda has successfully worked with students with disabilities and challenging behaviours in a caring and professional manner. She is also someone who is always willing to drop what she is doing to help out another staff member. Rhonda is a worthy recipient of recognition on World Teachers' Day.